SURE 'NUFF WINTER
When de summer sun comes shinin'
Hot enuf to frizzle meat,
You nev' a heah dis darky pluin'
'Bout de everlastin' heat.

Foh I'm dead sick of this weather,
With frost snappin' in de air,
De snow drappin' like feathers
On de earth all col' and fair.

I likes a little wlater, pon my soul,
But de no'th pole's on de hum,
An' Unkle Sam's conservin' coal,
Is enuf to freeze a darky numb.

Now, when de summer sun shines hot
An' makes de sweat to raise,
I beta I'll cool me off a lot.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Filed in Cincinnati by Former Manchester, Ohio, Lady—Was Well Known Here.

Yesterday's Cincinnati Enquirer contained the following item:

Alleging he neglected her for one Edna Engel, whom he took auto riding, Ruby Griffith Bowman is suing for a divorce from Harry Glena Bowman, 228 Stanley avenue, and is seeking alimony and custody of their two children.

Mrs. Bowman says they were married at Manchester, Ohio, September 17, 1910. She declares Bowman became enamored of Edna Engel, whom he took to resorts and amusement places, and even took their two children and the Engel money auto riding and wasted his money on this woman, she alleges. She declares Bowman taunted her about "his chicken," declaring he never was cut out to be a married man and married life did not agree with him.

On one occasion, Mrs. Bowman declares, her husband took some of her relatives auto riding, and introduced them to Edna Engel. At another time, she says, Bowman took Miss Engel to the home of a relative and introduced her as the daughter of his employer. He said their auto had broken down and asked to remain there until it was mended, Mrs. Bowman alleges. He often bragged of his other girls and told her he did not love her, Mrs. Bowman says.

Mrs. Bowman was well known here and before her marriage was a frequent visitor to friends in this city.

CALL REFUSED

Dr. Vipperman Will Not Accept Pastorate of First Baptist Church Here.

The following letter, received by Mr. H. C. Barnes, chairman of the pulpit committee of the First Baptist Church, is self explanatory:

Dallas, N. C., January 15, 1918.

Prof. H. C. Barnes,
Chairman Pulpit Committee,
Maysville, Ky.

My Dear Brother Barnes:

I am out in the country spending the week with a country church teaching and lecturing. So rushed was I that to give you an answer before leaving Dallas was impossible. A day of great strenuousness was passed Sunday. This day has shut its doors upon me and given itself forever to the past and eternally to history. My feelings in giving you any kind of reply defy all human description, let alone definitions—to define is the unthinkable task. If I could lay under tribute the power of every language under heaven I feel that I could, with such resources of utterance only express myself in the feeblest possible way.

Never has my soul carried such heaviness as this relation.

The church refuses to let me go, and that too amid the tenderest feelings and this shuns the only possible door through which I could see any entrance to you—since the very conditions, as I outlined to you good brethren make it such as to be a very undesirable case, permanently crippling me, if I should without their voluntary releasing of me, come to you all, but without their voluntary consent, I am, as you clearly see, tied hands and feet—since I am God's prophet to all this country round about.

Never was I more harrassed by a church and to show you the sincerity of my feelings, if I were released from this blessed pastorate, where it is my great joy to preach the Gospel of our Lord, and every church on earth were open to me, I would, without a moment of hesitancy come to you all. I struggle, an inspired man did (Eph. 2:20) for words wherewith to express my unfathomable gratitude for all you or expressions of confidence, love and esteem.

It really seems that the joy next to being, the pastor of such people flows only in the land where there is no night—"where God the Son forever reigns and scattereth night away." I trust that guidance may be given from Him who forever lives in the land of love and light and song to bring to the throne of your superb church the David of His own choosing.

The work at Dallas as I see it is truly great and through my "Community Bible School" I want to touch and quicken the spiritual life of this whole section of the country. With abundant thanksgivings for all your blessed, goodly and richly commendable efforts in my behalf to bring to you all as pastor and with every good wish possible for every member of your great church and to the personnel of your beautiful and aggressive little city, I am,

Yours in Christian bonds,
JUDSON L. VIPPERMAN.

BUSINESSES WHICH MAY KEEP OPEN TODAY.

This is practically a "businessless" day in Maysville when the full effect of Federal Fuel Administrator Garfield's sweeping order will be felt. The few industries and businesses which will remain open during all or part of today with a full supply of heat, are listed as follows:

Theaters.
Laundries.
Groceries and wholesale and retail dealers in foodstuffs, open until noon.
Feed stores, open until noon.
Drug stores, open all day until the usual closing time, for the sale of drug and medical supplies only. Soda fountains will not be allowed to operate.
Office building rooms or buildings used by the United States, State, county or municipal governments, transportation companies, banks, trust companies, public utilities companies, telephone and telegraph companies, physicians and dentists.
Industrial plants engaged exclusively in the manufacture of machinery, or parts, for ships.
Flour milling and corn milling concerns.
Newspapers, one edition only.

SUIT FILED

In Mason Circuit Court Saturday by Heirs at Law of Late Emily Daulton, Seeking To Set Aside Her Promised Will.

Through their attorneys, B. S. Grannis and J. M. Collins, a suit was filed in the Mason Circuit Court Saturday by H. M. Harrison, S. H. Harrison, Charles Harrison, Thomas Harrison, Dollie Harrison, by her guardian, Minnie Harrison; Edith Harrison, and Maude Harrison heirs at law of the late Emily Daulton, against Elizabeth Manning, Sadie Galtner and Riley Galtner, her husband; Mattie Cord, Emma Cord, Frankie and Raason Cord and the Pillow of Fire Church, asking that the probated will of Emily Daulton, deceased, be set aside.

In their petition the plaintiffs state that there was probated in the Mason County Court on December 22, 1917, a paper said to be the last will and testament of Emily Daulton, deceased. By the terms of this will $200 is bequeathed to the Pillow of Fire church, and the remaining one-third to be divided equally between Sadie Galtner, Mattie Cord, Emma Cord, Frankie Cord and Raason Cord.

The appellants state that said will was not in fact the true will of the decedent and they pray that said paper be declared not to be the true last will of Emily Daulton, deceased, and that the order to probate be set aside and held to naught.

ORDER WITHDRAWN

By Columbia Gas Company Which Would Have Reduced Gas Supply Here and Injunction Suit Is Dismissed.

The temporary injunction which was filed against the Columbia Gas and Electric Company by the Maysville Gas Company on Saturday night, December 12, to prevent the reduction of the gas supply here on third, was to have been called for trial before Circuit Judge C. D. Newell Saturday morning, but just before the case was called, the officials of the Columbia Gas and Electric Company notified the Maysville Gas Company that the order to reduce the gas supply here had been withdrawn and asked that all litigation be suspended.

This means that Maysville will have its full supply of gas in the future unless something unexpected happens.

The officials of the Maysville Gas Company are to be congratulated upon their prompt action which protected the people of this city from suffering on account of a lack of gas during the bitter cold weather.

PEOPLE AGAIN GETTING WARM REPORT SAYS

Great improvement in fuel famine conditions was reported to Fuel Administrator Garfield yesterday by State Fuel Administrators in twenty-eight States east of the Mississippi. It was declared that a steady flow of coal is going forward into the districts where it is most needed, and that the people were "getting warm again." Director of Railroads McAdoo issued an order placing an embargo on the use of open-top cars except for fuel.

THEATERS OPEN TODAY

Will Remain Closed on Tuesday, Instead—Big Features at All the Maysville Movie Houses.

Mr. S. P. Browning, Fuel Chairman for Maysville, is in receipt of the following telegram from Wiley B. Bryson, Fuel Administrator for Kentucky:

Louisville, Ky., January 19, 1918.

S. P. Browning, Maysville, Ky.

Theaters, moving picture houses, bowling alleys, dance halls and other places of amusement will open Monday. On Tuesday these places are forbidden to use fuel or light, inside or out.

WILEY B. BRYSON.

The Fuel Administration has headed the pleadings of theater owners all over the country and will allow all theaters to remain open on Mondays, but they must close on Tuesdays.

On account of the fact that practically every business will be closed on Monday, the many people who are idle will have some place to go, and this will be a help to the government, inasmuch as it will collect the war tax, which will be more than it would be on Tuesday.

All the Maysville theaters have booked big features for their patrons today and will give both matinee and evening shows.

Dorothy Dalton will be seen at the Washington in "Love Letters."

Clara Kimball Young will be the feature at the Gem, appearing in "Shirley Kaye."

Harry Carry in the headliner at the Pastime in a big sensational Western feature.

Word has been received here that Rev. Locke White, former pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church here is progressing nicely in his work at Charlotte, N. C., and expects to be back with his congregation by April 1.

HARNESSING OUR RIVERS

Congress at last is getting down to work on a conservation bill intended to unlock our national stores of "white coal."

It is estimated that we are letting 35,000,000 horsepower run to waste. That is about enough to turn every wheel in America. The nation has long been conscious of the unspeakable waste involved in letting so many swift streams run unharnessed. But action has been held up for many years, because the theoretical conservationists and the practical exploiters couldn't agree, and the government never succeeded in working out a satisfactory policy.

Now it is announced that the administration has evolved a plan which will protect the public interest and at the same time hold out sufficient inducement for private capital to go ahead and develop the power sites. There is to be a commission composed of the secretaries of interior, war and agriculture, and employing a salaried director, empowered to lease the water power privileges on public lands, on Indian lands, in national forests and on navigable streams everywhere, for periods not exceeding 50 years. At the end of the period the projects may be re-leased to the lessees, or leased to other parties, or taken over by the United States, at the direction of the government. The yearly rental receipts will be placed in the federal treasury.

The measure is said to embrace important features of the Shields bill and the Ferris bill. Congressional leaders have promised to take early action on it.

If the bill will really accomplish what is promised for it, action cannot be too prompt. The present fuel famine and railroad handicap add unusual interest to what has always been a fascinating conservation problem. Every bit of water power turned into electric energy, available for power, heat and light, will lessen the clamorous demand for coal and help to relieve the railroads. It will be a positive addition to our national wealth, too. Those 35,000,000 horsepower now running to waste are worth untold billions of dollars.

EAT MORE POTATOES

There are always two ways to view any subject, the positive and negative. All these days with "less" on the end of them—wheatless, meatless, etc.—represent the negative view in food matters. Taking the positive position is for many people very much easier.

There is, for example, the large group who cannot possibly restrain themselves from flying into rages if they concentrate their minds on not getting angry, but who can learn to be cheerful and pleasant and kind without much trouble if they just keep their minds on the positive thought of being sweet-tempered.

For all these positives here's a cheering idea to hold: Don't think about eating less wheat; think about eating more potatoes!

There are plenty of potatoes. Eat them for breakfast as our farmer forbears used to do. Eat thick potato soups or jound potato salads for luncheon, thus beating the Germans at their own game. And have great heaps of foamy mashed ones or comforting hot-gravy-bestrewn baked ones for dinner.

The chances are that with a little ingenuity in their preparation, you will discover an unsuspected love for the humble tubers. And all the time you'll forget you didn't eat any bread at this meal or eat, and you'll want only half a slice at the other.

A MODEST REQUEST

A French newspaper published in the Trenches tells of a certain German officer who was taken prisoner, severely wounded, and was nursed back to health in a French military hospital. When he had recovered, he was effusive in his thanks to the French medical officer who had cured him, and said:

"I want to prove my gratitude to you in a practical way. Ask me anything you wish, and if I am able I will do it. And don't forget that I am a wealthy and influential man. What can I do for you?"

The doctor answered simply, "Spare our hospitals."

It was a fair and modest request. But there isn't any evidence that it was granted. The Germans kept right on blowing up the French hospitals.

"I SUFFERED SEVEN YEARS"

Was Eventually Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I suffered for seven long years with a lame back, irregularities and pain. I had one physician after another but they did me no good. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and gave it a trial and in a short time I felt benefited and am now feeling fine, and without weakness or pain. Many of my friends have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and been helped by it."—Mrs. MARGARET NESS, 1846 E. Hazard St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Women who suffer from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, sideache, headache or "the blues" should not rest until they have given this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. If communications exist, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special suggestions. The result of its long experience is at your service.

The street railway companies of Rome, Florence, Turin and other large cities of Italy report that there have been fewer accidents on their lines since women have been operating the cars.

PROFANITY REDUCED IN ARMY CAMPS

"Kindly Kwik Kussing." This is the slogan, spelled in whimsical fashion, which the Y. M. C. A.'s of the various big cantonments in the central military department are adopting in a campaign to reduce profanity among the soldier boys and thereby improve the moral tone of the camps. In some of the big camps a distinct falling off in swearing has been noticed as a result of the "clean language" efforts.

WOULD CONNECT CHICAGO WITH NEW YORK

The Type Used in One Year to Publish Endorsements of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Of the many kidney remedies on the market today, none other is recommended like Doan's Kidney Pills. Forty thousand benefited people gladly testify in the newspapers of their own towns. Forty-five hundred American newspapers publish this home proof of Doan's merit. The type used in one year to tell this wonderful story would make a solid column of metal twice as high as the world's highest mountain. Placed end to end the lines of type would reach from New York to Chicago. These miles of good words told by 40,000 tongues sound glad tidings to any Maysville sufferer who wants relief from kidney and bladder ills. Here's a Maysville case. Don't experiment. Use the remedy endorsed by people you know.

John J. Bramel, bookkeeper, Walnut street, Maysville, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been of great benefit to me and in fact, I attribute fourteen years of my life to them. It was in 1902 that I was suffering a great deal. After long use of Doan's Kidney Pills, I became well and had no bad effects for many years. Recently however, I noticed my kidneys were not acting right and my system was generally weak. I knew it was a return of the trouble and I didn't lose any time in getting a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Chanslor's Drug Store. They again gave me the same good results and I consider them a wonderful medicine."

Mr. Bramel is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Bramel had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all stores. now severe to remind the men of the objectionable character of profanity. One of these reads:

"If you curse in your own home, curse here."

We want you to feel at home."

Recently an enlisted man at one of the writing benches in a hut apewed worth a mouthful of oaths which were overheard by a secretary.

"Just put that in a letter to your mother sometime," said the secretary suggestively. Four days later the young man laid a neatly written letter before the secretary with the statement: "That's to my mother—the first I've written her in seven years. The hint you gave me the other day made me realize my duty towards her—and I've decided to cut the cussing, too."

Reports from the cantonments show also that gambling has fallen into disrepute before the ingenious onslaughts of the Y. M. C. A. workers.

Absorbing athletic games have served to divert the attention of the men and give them something wholesome to think about. In one camp the interest excited in volleyball, as a voluntary recreation, almost completely broke up the practice of crap-playing. A secretary happened to witness a group of men engaged in "rolling the bones" and shouted in military fashion:

"All out for basketball!"

The game broke up immediately, the boys naturally preferring a game that brought their muscles into active play.

FOOD FOR YOUR CHILDREN
(U. S. Dept. of Agriculture)
(U. S. Food Administration)

Give your children their chance. They ought to have it and you want to give it to them. They must have the right food.

Think how fast the child grows. The new muscles and bones and all the other parts of the body are made from the food which the child eats.

Give him clean, wholesome, simply cooked food—plenty of milk, cereals, vegetables, fruit, an egg or some meat occasionally.

Wrong food—too little, too much, or wrong kinds—hurts the child's chance of being the strong, healthy boy or girl you want.

Right food—may mean—strong bodies, good brains, rosy cheeks, bright eyes.
Here's Good Food For a Real Youngster's Day

A good breakfast to start him off—milk, corn-meal mush, apple sauce. It makes him fit for school and fit for play.

Milk and plenty of it, makes him grow—a quart each day if you can. Put it on his cereal and in his cup. Make it into soups, puddings, or custards for him. Try the recipes on the last page and watch him smile.

Whole milk is best, of course, but skim milk is good if there is a little butter in his meals. Cottage cheese is good, too.

No coffee or tea—not even a taste. Leave them for the grownups. Milk, cocoa, not too strong, and fruit juices are the drinks for children, and plenty of water always.

Fruit they enjoy, and they need it, too—baked apples, apple sauce, thoroughly ripe bananas, prunes, oranges, etc. Give them vegetables, fresh or canned. Plenty of fruits and vegetables tend to prevent constipation. Use proper food and do not depend upon laxatives. The youngster can't be well unless the bowels move regularly. Don't let him hurry off in the morning without attending to this duty.

Other foods a child needs: Whole wheat bread, not too fresh, corn bread, well-cooked oatmeal, corn meal, rice. They help make strong boys and girls. Some fats, butter or margarine or meat fats on his bread or in gravies. An egg, perhaps, particularly if he doesn't get his full quart of milk, or he can have a little meat or fish, but he does not need much.

Sweets are good for them—the right ones at the right time. Dates, raisins, stewed fruits, simple puddings, sugar cookies, are better than candy. Give them at meal times.

Between meals let them have bread and butter, a cracker, or fruit. They won't spoil the appetite, and candy will.

used), 2½ tablespoons flour, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine or other fat, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 cups thoroughly cooked vegetable finely chopped, mashed or put through a sieve. Spinach, peas, beans, potatoes, celery, or asparagus make good soups.

Stir flour into melted fat and mix with the cold milk. Add the cooked vegetable and stir over the fire until thickened. If soup is too thick, add a little water or milk.

Rice Pudding
1 quart milk, ½ cup rice, ½ cup sugar, ½ cup raisins or chopped dates, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon ground nutmeg or cinnamon.
Wash the rice, mix all together, and bake three hours in a very slow oven, stirring now and then at first. This may be made on top of the stove in a double boiler, or in a fireless cooker. Any coarse cereal may be used in place of rice.

EXCERPTS FROM THE GRAND EX-ALTER RULER FRED C. HARR-ER OF THE B. P. O. ELKS

I am now securing, upon blanks sent out to each Lodge, statements of their activities in all lines of patriotic service and lists of their members now in the military and naval service. My heart swells with pride as the totals grow day to day as the reports are received. They indicate that the final compilation will show:

a. The investment of a million dollars of subordinate lodges in Liberty Bonds.
b. One hundred thousand dollars contributed by subordinate lodges to the Red Cross.
c. Fifty thousand dollars contributed to the Y. M. C. A. War Fund.
d. Many thousands of dollars donated to other war funds.
e. More than twenty thousand of our members now in the military and naval service of the United States.
f. More than three hundred Elks' Club House in use as Red Cross headquarters.
g. Numerous companies for home defense organized wholly by Elks' Lodges.

h. The remittance of annual dues to practically every member of the Order in the country's service. It is an Honor Roll indeed; and full justifies the claim we confidently make for our splendid Order—that it is the greatest patriotic asset of the United States today.

DISORDERS

Renewed in Russia As Bolsheviks Lose in Constituent Assembly—Radicals Withdraw From New Legislative Body.

London, January 20.—The long-awaited convening of the Constituent Assembly apparently has precipitated a fresh crisis in Russian affairs, with renewed disorders as the consequence of a struggle for control in the capital indicated as a possibility.

The Bolsheviks evidently are not taking kindly to the new legislative body, in which the very first vote of the opening session Friday revealed a decided anti-Bolshevik majority, which easily elected its candidate for Chairman, 244 to 151, and this without the help of the new Constitutional Democrats, who were not present.

The Bolsheviks and their supporters, the extreme Social Revolutionists thereupon withdrew from the Assembly.

This break with the majority Social Revolutionists, who showed their control by electing as Chairman one of their leaders, M. Tchernoff, Minister of Agriculture in the Kerensky Government, is interpreted abroad as a probable prelude to an attempt on the part of the Bolshevik Government to assert itself in supreme control regardless of what course the present Assembly may desire to take.

The forcible dissolution of the Assembly or its reorganization as a Bolshevik body are among the possible courses forecast.

It is recalled that the Chairman of the Assembly, M. Tchernoff, was under fire as a member of the Kerensky Government, being accused of pro-Germanism and of having relations with the enemy.

He afterward was rehabilitated, however, and continued a strong influence in Social Revolutionary circles. In November he was one of the political leaders who attended a conference at Russian headquarters when an effort was under way to form a new Government in opposition to the Bolsheviks.

Some disorder preceded the opening of the Assembly, five persons being killed and a dozen wounded in street fighting.

ITALIANS CHECK ENEMY EFFORT TO ADVANCE AT VENICE

London, January 20.—Only one spot on the military map is showing any activity out of the ordinary for mid-winter—the right flank of the Italian river front, on the lower reaches of the Piave. Here the Austrians have made a further effort to drive into the Italian lines near Capo Sile and wedge their way further toward Venice.

The latest assault appears to have been no more successful than the other recent efforts, the Italians meeting the enemy with devastating artillery fire and obliterating machine guns and rifles the few detachments that succeeded in getting across No Man's Land to the defensive barricades.

DEATH OF MRS. W. B. CARPENTER

A telephone message was received in this city yesterday morning announcing the death of Mrs. W. B. Carpenter at her home at Hyde Park, Cincinnati, Sunday morning. Mrs. Carpenter has been in feeble health for some time and her death did not come as a surprise, although it was a great shock to her many friends. Before her marriage Mrs. Carpenter was Miss Margaret Coons, daughter of the late Charles B. Coons, prominent business man of this city. She is survived by her husband and several children.

The funeral will be held Tuesday morning from her late home at Hyde Park. Interment in the Spring Grove cemetery.

SOLDIERS IN FRANCE KEPT WELL SUPPLIED

Washington, January 20.—Repeated publications of reports of shortages of food and clothing among Gen. Pershing's forces in France, today led Secretary Baker to announce that no complaints had come to him either from official or unofficial sources. Had there been shortages, Mr. Baker said, not only would a report have been received from Gen. Pershing in the ordinary course, but such a report would have been required by army regulations.

In this connection it is learned that soon after the movement of troops to France began, a general order was issued prohibiting the embarkation of any man whose immediate commanding officer had not certified that the soldier was completely equipped.

LOUISVILLE SCHOOLS CLOSED

Acting upon the request of the County Fuel Committee the Louisville Board of Education Saturday night decided to close the public schools for one week, the time lost to be made up by extension of the school term in June. Bishop O'Donoghue has also directed that the parochial schools of that city be suspended for the same period.

Arrangements for the early transportation of 60,000 common laborers to the United States from Porto Rico are being made by the Employment Service of the Department of Labor. As soon as tonnage is available 60,000 others will be brought from Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

Wholesale prices for storage creamery butter at New York and Chicago were fixed at 47 and 48½ cents Saturday by the Food Administration at Washington. Corresponding prices are expected to rule throughout the country.

When the task of copying the names and addresses on the 175,000 food pledge cards signed by the people of Kentucky is completed permanent organization of the food supply army in this State will be completed.

Treasury officials soon will ask Congress to authorize the melting of 150,000,000 silver dollars now stored on the Treasury to supply silver bulletins for export to America's allies.

Mr. George C. Curtis of Bellaire, O., is visiting relatives and friends in this city.
